

Narration - “Blessed Be the Name of the Lord”

One morning in the summer of 1990, this song started playing in Steve’s mind as he was getting ready to come to Children’s Show rehearsal. He taught it to the cast that morning, and it became a part of the vocal warm-up routine. George Robson IV, director of the Ocean Grove Children’s Show in 1990, thought it would be an appropriate choral response to be used after the prayer that precedes each performance. George’s decision started a Children’s Show tradition. This summer marks 30 years since we first sang “Blessed Be.”
