

Narration - "I Like Who I Am"

In the Darling nursery, while John and Michael are sleeping, Wendy and Peter Pan have been talking. Wendy, both saddened and surprised to find that Peter Pan has never known what it means to have a mother, is even more surprised when Peter tells of his home on the island of Never-Never Land, and then shares his confident, carefree philosophy about life and adventure!