"When the Wind Blows"

Script Excerpt and Song

Dorothy

The sea, Toto? They talk about the sea.
But I don't know what that is. Do you?

(Toto barks a few times.)

You want to play, don't you? Here.

(Smiling, still kneeling, Dorothy takes the stick and tosses it a short distance. Toto runs over and starts chewing on the stick.)

Song #3 - When The Wind Blows

*I wonder what it looks like Water -- all the way to the horizon
Can you play in it?
Can you splash in it?
Oh, I wonder how does it make you feel?
I've never known the sea
But I have known something else Something good and wonderful and strong and free
I have known..... the wind*

(Dorothy stands.)

*In the summertime the wind blows
The wind blows and I feel the song in my heart that I was born to sing And the song touches everything the blue in the beautiful water the sun and the sky and the sea -- and me
When the wind blows my heart dreams of places
I haven't even understood or thought could ever be
but I can hear it calling out to me
Oh, I can hear it calling out to me*

So let the wind blow Let it blow from here to over there and then come back around Let it pick me up and let it carry me and set me down In a place where I can be all my heart is telling me

Do you understand, Toto? (Toto brings over the stick and barks.) Does it mean something to you? (Toto barks again, waiting for the stick to be thrown.) You want me to throw the stick again? (Toto barks a third time. Dorothy smiles and tosses the stick. Toto goes after it, then wanders off stage.)

*'Cause when the wind blows my heart dreams of places
I haven't even understood or thought could ever be
but I can hear it calling out to me
Oh, I can hear it calling out to me*
